28 / 30 October 2011

FRIDAY 28th October

6:00pm – 8:00pm Meet and Greet at National Aquarium, Marine Parade, Napier. Pick up your pack, stay around to mix and mingle. Nibbles will be provided. Cash bar available. In your pack will be a list of Restaurants available for dinner Friday night.

SATURDAY 29th October

Free time until 10.00am. Brochures and maps will be in the registration pack on things to do around Napier like Art Deco Tours, Antique Shop tours or just shopping etc.

Meet at the Sound Shell, Marine Parade at 10.00am for a show and shine. We leave at 11.30am to make our way to Sacred Hill Winery, we will be taking the scenic route (maps will be given) about 60 kms. For those who have an interest, the web site for the winery is www.sacredhill.com. The winemaker Tony Bish has a 156 which he loves to drive, so hopefully we can get him involved as well. A lunch (inside arrangements made for the unlikely event of inclement weather) will be provided with a wine glass included, tasting and tea or coffee paid for, but any bottles consumed at your expense.

North Island - South Island challenge will take place at this venue. One team from each region (volunteers or otherwise) to be organised at the lunch.

Around 3.00pm maps for the Wine/Scavenger Hunt/Trial will be distributed. Please note there are several different maps in order to spread us all out. Nothing worse than 100 people all ending up at the same winery all wanting to taste together. Most Hawke's Bay wineries now charge for tasting between $2-$3 dollars. The scavenger part does not entail having to taste, but to answer questions and collect bits and pieces. A bag will be provided, please put your name in with the collection and the winner(s) will be rewarded at the dinner.

Dinner — Will be held at the War Memorial Centre, along Marine Parade. This is in walking distance from the Hotel. The theme for the dinner is Art Deco, while it is not compulsory to dress up; it is more fun if you do. A great jazz band will play for us to dine and dance. The Dinner is included in the registration fee but a cash bar will operate.

SUNDAY 30th October

10.30am. The Alfa Romeo Owners' Club 37th AGM - Club business and general discussion, will be in the conference room at the War Memorial Centre, followed by a light lunch.
